

Composition : Ranitidine 150mg & 300mg Tablet.

Indications : Ulcar is indicated for the treatment of duodenal ulcer and benign gastric ulcer, including that associated with non-steroidal anti-inflammatory agents.

Ulcar tablet is also indicated for the treatment of post-operative ulcer, oesophageal reflux disease and Zollinger-Ellison Syndrome. Other patients with chronic episodic dyspepsia, characterised by pain (epigastric or retrosternal) which is related to meals or disturbs sleep but is not associated with the preceding conditions may benefit from Ranitidine treatment. Ulcar is indicated for conditions where reduction of gastric secretion and acid output is desirable such as: the prophylaxis of gastro-intestinal haemorrhage from stress ulceration in seriously ill patients, the prophylaxis of recurrent haemorrhage in patients with bleeding peptic ulcers and before general anaesthesia in patients considered to be at risk of acid aspiration (Mendelson's Syndrome), particularly obstetric patients during labour.

Dosage and administration : Ulcar Tablet : The recommended oral dosage of Ulcar for adults is 150mg tablet twice daily. An alternate dosage of 300mg daily at bed time can be used for patients in whom dosing convenience is important. Or as directed by a registered physician.

Ulcar Tablet

Contraindication : Ranitidine is contraindicated for patients known to have hypersensitivity to the drug.

Side effects : Malaise, dizziness, somnolence, insomnia, vertigo, constipation, diarrhea, nausea, vomiting, abdominal discomfort may occur rarely.

Precautions :

1. Treatment with a histamine H<sub>2</sub>-antagonist may mask symptoms associated with carcinoma of the stomach and may therefore delay diagnosis of the condition.
2. Since Ranitidine is excreted primarily by the kidney, dose should be adjusted in patients with impaired renal function.

Use in pregnancy and lactation : Ranitidine has been assigned to pregnancy category B by the FDA.
